

Name _____

Elevator Escapades

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How did Sarah's initial discomfort and anxiety inside the elevator contribute to the humor and farcical elements of the story, and what does it reveal about her character?
2. What role did humor play in diffusing the tension inside the elevator, and how did it transform the characters' interactions and relationships?
3. In your opinion, what might be the moral or lesson of this story, and how does the elevator ordeal reflect this lesson?
4. How did the characters' shared experience of being trapped in the elevator lead to moments of bonding and laughter, and what does this tell us about the power of shared experiences in building connections?

