

Name _____

Unraveling the Complex Character of Elizabeth Bennet

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What qualities are most associated with Elizabeth Bennet?
 - a. Wealth and beauty
 - b. Wit, intelligence, and morality
 - c. Shyness and obedience
 - d. Laziness and indifference

2. How does Elizabeth differ from many women of her time?
 - a. She values wealth and social status.
 - b. She is independent and values intelligence and character.
 - c. She is submissive and obedient.
 - d. She is known for her shyness.

3. What is a central theme in Elizabeth's character development?
 - a. Her pursuit of wealth and social status
 - b. Her quick judgments and strong prejudices
 - c. Her inability to form close relationships
 - d. Her desire for power and control

4. Who is Elizabeth's love interest in the novel?
 - a. Mr. Charles Bingley
 - b. Mr. Bennet
 - c. Mr. Fitzwilliam Darcy
 - d. Mr. Collins

5. What does Elizabeth's relationship with Mr. Darcy symbolize in the novel?
 - a. The importance of wealth in marriage
 - b. The idea that first impressions are always accurate
 - c. The theme of overcoming pride and prejudice
 - d. The necessity of obeying societal norms

