

Name _____

The Enchanted Artifacts

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on the theme of responsibility in the story. How did the children's newfound powers come with a sense of duty? What are some real-life situations where people may have extraordinary abilities and responsibilities?
2. Imagine you are one of the children in the story. Describe a specific mission or responsibility you would take on using your magical artifact. How would you use your powers to help your town and its residents?
3. Discuss the significance of the secret pact formed by the friends. How did their commitment to meet regularly and discuss their missions strengthen their bond and sense of purpose? How can teamwork and communication benefit individuals in real-life situations?
4. Think about the message conveyed in the story about using power for the greater good. How does the story illustrate the importance of using one's abilities and resources to make a positive impact on the community and the environment? How can this message apply to your own life?

