

Name _____

The Hilarious Rehearsals of The Enchanted Kingdom

Short Answer Key

1. Emily's initial attempt at creating a princess costume for Sarah turned out to be a sparkly, oversized gown that made Sarah look like she had been swallowed by a sequin-covered marshmallow.
2. Ben, the stage manager, handled the mishap with the stuck castle backdrop by humorously announcing, "And now, introducing the magical floating castle," which earned laughter and applause from the audience.
3. Mia, the prop master, added an unexpected twist to a scene involving a treasure chest by replacing the magical amulet with a rubber chicken, which left Sarah shocked and the cast and crew in fits of laughter.
4. The cast and crew reacted to the mishaps during rehearsals by embracing the humor and learning to find laughter in unexpected moments. They realized that laughter could bring them closer together and make the experience more enjoyable.
5. The cast and crew's decision to incorporate the mishaps into intentional gags for the opening night of the play made it even more entertaining. It allowed the audience to join in the laughter and enjoy the unexpected comedic moments, making the play a memorable experience.

