

Name _____

The Principal's Energetic Day

Short Answer Key

1. When Principal Johnson found herself spinning in her office chair, she accidentally knocked the phone off the hook, and papers flew everywhere.
2. Principal Johnson's presence turned the game of dodgeball in the gymnasium from friendly to frantic. She joined in and became a dodgeball dynamo, making the game chaotic and challenging for the students.
3. Principal Johnson led an impromptu dance-off in the cafeteria during lunchtime, turning it into a dance party and spreading laughter and joy among the students and staff.
4. At the end of the school day, Principal Johnson felt back to her calm and collected self, albeit a bit exhausted from her day of chaos. She chuckled at the memory of her energetic adventure and sipped her regular cup of coffee.
5. The students who played the prank on Principal Johnson were growing increasingly worried about the consequences of their actions because word of her antics had spread throughout the school, and they feared getting caught.

