

Name _____

Guardians of the Planet: A Day in the Life of an Environmental Scientist

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary responsibility of an Environmental Scientist?
 - a) Creating art
 - b) Protecting and preserving the environment
 - c) Designing video games
 - d) Writing poetry

2. What type of education is typically required to become an Environmental Scientist?
 - a) A high school diploma
 - b) A Ph.D. in any field
 - c) At least a bachelor's degree in environmental science or a related field
 - d) A master's degree in mathematics

3. Why do Environmental Scientists spend time in the field?
 - a) To go on vacation
 - b) To collect data and observe the environment firsthand
 - c) To learn how to surf
 - d) To avoid working in an office

4. What is one of the key roles of Environmental Scientists when it comes to development projects?
 - a) Ignoring the potential impact on the environment
 - b) Creating more pollution
 - c) Advocating for policies that harm the environment
 - d) Conducting environmental impact assessments to assess and mitigate potential harm to the ecosystem

5. How do Environmental Scientists contribute to education and outreach?
 - a) By keeping their research a secret
 - b) By teaching students about environmental conservation and organizing community events
 - c) By writing complicated reports that no one can understand
 - d) By avoiding public speaking

