

Name _____

The Escape Room Escapade

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. The friends' love for adventure influenced their decision to try the escape room challenge because they were always seeking exciting activities and were open to new experiences. They were willing to take on the challenge without hesitation.
2. The escape room was described as filled with strange symbols, locks, and hidden clues, creating a mysterious and thrilling atmosphere. The setting contributed to the excitement by providing a challenging and engaging environment for the friends to explore and solve puzzles.
3. Qualities of teamwork that were essential for the friends to succeed in the escape room included communication, cooperation, problem-solving, and the ability to work under time pressure. They needed to collaborate and use their individual strengths to solve the puzzles and escape within the time limit.
4. The experience of completing the escape room challenge reinforced the importance of teamwork for the friends. They realized that by working together and utilizing each other's skills, they could overcome challenges and achieve success in thrilling adventures. This experience deepened their appreciation for the value of collaboration in their future adventures.

