

Name _____

Estranged Relatives

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What happened to Sarah, the eldest daughter of the Stevens family, before the story began?
 - a) She got married and moved away.
 - b) She had a bitter argument and left home.
 - c) She went on a long vacation.
 - d) She became a famous actress.

2. What brings Sarah back to her family after being estranged for so long?
 - a) She had nowhere else to go.
 - b) She missed her family and wanted to make amends.
 - c) She was looking for a place to stay.
 - d) She wanted to confront her family.

3. How do Lily and Jake, the younger siblings, feel when Sarah returns?
 - a) They are overjoyed and welcome her with open arms.
 - b) They are indifferent and don't care about her return.
 - c) They have mixed feelings, as they love her but also resent her for leaving.
 - d) They are angry and refuse to talk to her.

4. What is the main theme of the story?
 - a) The power of pride and stubbornness.
 - b) The importance of confrontation and arguments.
 - c) The strength of love and forgiveness in reuniting a family.
 - d) The need to hold onto grudges and unresolved issues.

5. How does the Stevens family ultimately resolve their differences?
 - a) By ignoring each other and not discussing their issues.
 - b) By pretending that the past didn't happen.
 - c) By sharing their feelings, listening to each other, and forgiving.
 - d) By holding onto their grudges and staying estranged.

