

Name _____

Guiding Light: The Power of Following Directions in Everyday Life

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the comparison made in the passage to explain the role of following directions in daily life?
 - a) A map guiding through a new city.
 - b) A canvas adding color to experiences.
 - c) A toothbrush maintaining oral hygiene.
 - d) A shield protecting from harm.

2. Which artist is mentioned as an example of someone who followed a unique routine early in the morning?
 - a) Vincent van Gogh
 - b) Leonardo da Vinci
 - c) Marie Curie
 - d) Julia Child

3. What role do directions play in a science experiment mentioned in the passage?
 - a) They create a colorful canvas.
 - b) They ensure safety during the experiment.
 - c) They guide the experiment to success.
 - d) They protect from harm.

4. How does following directions contribute to safety in the passage?
 - a) By creating a colorful canvas.
 - b) By preparing for fire drills.
 - c) By connecting to Wi-Fi.
 - d) By looking both ways when crossing the street.

5. What does the passage suggest about following directions in technology?
 - a) It is unnecessary in the digital age.
 - b) It helps customize settings on devices.
 - c) It hinders creativity in using devices.
 - d) It is limited to setting up new devices.

