

Name _____

The Day Everything was Opposite

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was the first unusual thing that happened in Upsideville on the opposite day?

- A) The library was closed.
- B) Mrs. Turner served cookies with ketchup and mustard.
- C) The animals in the town were silent.
- D) The students had extra homework.

2. How did Mr. Smith, the librarian, greet people on the opposite day?

- A) With a cheerful "Hello!"
- B) With a silent nod
- C) With a hearty "Goodbye!"
- D) With a stern scowl

3. Why did the students at the school consider themselves lucky on the opposite day?

- A) They had no classes.
- B) They had to do extra homework.
- C) They received gifts from the principal.
- D) They got to be teachers for the day.

4. What unusual event occurred in the evening in Upsideville on the opposite day?

- A) The stars and moon were visible in the sky.
- B) The town was plunged into complete darkness.
- C) The residents went to sleep early.
- D) The animals became quiet.

5. How did the residents of Upsideville celebrate the end of the opposite day?

- A) By turning on all the lights in town
- B) By going to bed early
- C) By reading books in the library
- D) With a grand feast of breakfast foods

