

Name _____

The Day Everything was Opposite

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. Mrs. Turner served cookies for breakfast, accompanied by ketchup and mustard.
2. The students at the school spent their day on Student Appreciation Day by enjoying playtime instead of homework, while the teachers completed the assignments.
3. In the evening on the opposite day, Upsideville was illuminated with glow sticks and lanterns, creating a unique and bright atmosphere.
4. The residents of Upsideville celebrated the unusual events with joy and wonder because it allowed them to break free from their daily routines and experience unexpected moments of laughter and unity.
5. Answers may vary, but students might discuss how the opposite day could encourage people to be more open to change, find humor in everyday life, and appreciate the value of spontaneity.

