

Name _____

The Extraterrestrial Exchange Program

Short Answer Key

1. Timmy's life changed after finding the flyer when he filled out an application and was accepted into the Extraterrestrial Exchange Program, which led to a week-long adventure on another planet.
2. Timmy experienced bizarre things on the planet Glipthor, including floating trees, sentient clouds, and a cuisine known as "screaming sponges."
3. Some humorous mishaps included Timmy causing a commotion at a Glipthorian library, and Zog emitting high-pitched squeals while trying to communicate with dogs. There were also misunderstandings due to cultural differences.
4. Timmy and Zog both felt a sense of appreciation for their own worlds and gained a broader perspective on different cultures and ways of life through the exchange.
5. The story conveys the value of exploring the unknown and experiencing different perspectives, highlighting how such experiences can be transformative and enriching.

