

Name _____

Roald Amundsen: The Great Polar Explorer

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. He was brave, smart, and always prepared. He also learned from others and worked hard to reach his goals.
2. Yes, because it helps us learn more about the world. No, because it can be very dangerous.
3. He might not have survived in the freezing temperatures, and his missions could have failed.
4. I would ask how he felt when he reached the South Pole because it was such an important moment in history.

