

Name _____

Fables Teach

Short Answer Key

1. Both stories teach that those who work hard will be rewarded, while those who are lazy will struggle.
2. The Hen refuses to share because the other animals refused to help her with any of the work.
3. The tortoise keeps moving forward, while the hare is overconfident and lazy, which costs him the race.
4. The Hen teaches a lesson about fairness by not sharing, while The Ant and the Grasshopper focuses more on preparing for the future.
5. Fables use simple, memorable stories to teach important life lessons in a way that is easy to understand.
