

Name _____

Fair Government

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main reason for checks and balances?
  - a) To let the President make all decisions
  - b) To prevent any branch from becoming too powerful
  - c) To allow Congress to choose laws without limits
  - d) To let the courts rule over the other branches

2. Which country has a Prime Minister and President who share power?
  - a) The United States
  - b) Germany
  - c) India
  - d) France

3. How is India's system similar to the U.S. system?
  - a) It has three branches of government
  - b) The Prime Minister makes all the laws
  - c) It has no checks and balances
  - d) It does not allow the Supreme Court to review laws

4. What does the Federal Constitutional Court in Germany do?
  - a) Makes laws
  - b) Picks the President
  - c) Checks if laws follow the Constitution
  - d) Removes leaders from office

5. Why do countries use checks and balances?
  - a) To make sure leaders share power fairly
  - b) To give one person full control
  - c) To make laws quickly without approval
  - d) To prevent courts from reviewing laws

