

Name _____

Fair Government

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. What might happen if a country did not have a system of checks and balances?
2. Why do you think different countries use different versions of checks and balances?
3. Can you think of a place outside of government where checks and balances might be useful?
4. How do checks and balances help protect people's rights?

