

Name _____

The Sixth Amendment: Ensuring a Fair Trial

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which amendment of the U.S. Constitution guarantees the right to a fair trial?
  - a) The First Amendment
  - b) The Second Amendment
  - c) The Fifth Amendment
  - d) The Sixth Amendment

2. What does the right to a "speedy trial" mean?
  - a) The trial must be conducted quickly, without any delays.
  - b) The accused can delay the trial as long as they want.
  - c) The trial must be held in secret.
  - d) The trial can only take place at night.

3. What is the purpose of an "impartial jury"?
  - a) To ensure that jury members are biased in favor of the accused
  - b) To guarantee that jury members are from a different state
  - c) To prevent bias or prejudice against the accused
  - d) To speed up the trial process

4. Why is it important for the accused to be "informed of the nature and cause of the accusation"?
  - a) To keep the accused in the dark about the charges
  - b) To confuse the accused
  - c) To ensure the accused knows the charges and evidence against them
  - d) To allow the prosecution to change the charges at any time

5. What does the right to "confrontation with witnesses" mean?
  - a) The accused can yell at witnesses during the trial.
  - b) The accused can refuse to listen to witness testimony.
  - c) The accused has the right to challenge and question witnesses who testify against them.
  - d) The accused can choose which witnesses will testify against them.

