

Name _____

Fairness Matters

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does the Little Red Hen refuse to share the bread?
  - a) She is selfish.
  - b) She wants to teach a lesson about fairness.
  - c) She does not like the other animals.
  - d) She forgot to ask them.

2. What lesson does the story teach about fairness?
  - a) Only strong animals deserve food.
  - b) Asking for help is wrong.
  - c) Friends should always share, no matter what.
  - d) Those who work hard should enjoy the reward.

3. How do the other animals react when the bread is ready?
  - a) They feel sorry and wish they had helped.
  - b) They are angry at the Hen.
  - c) They decide to steal the bread.
  - d) They leave the farm.

4. How would sharing the bread have been unfair?
  - a) The Hen would have been left with nothing after all her work.
  - b) The bread was not enough for everyone.
  - c) The Dog, Cat, and Duck did not like bread.
  - d) The Hen wanted to punish them.

5. What do the animals likely learn from this experience?
  - a) The Hen is unfair.
  - b) It is better to be lazy.
  - c) Hard work leads to rewards.
  - d) Baking bread is too difficult.

