

Name _____

Family Business

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the central conflict in the story "Family Business"?
 - a) A sibling rivalry
 - b) A struggle for control of the family bakery
 - c) A disagreement about the family's heritage
 - d) A fight over an inheritance

2. What are Sarah, Mike, and Emily's individual aspirations?
 - a) They all want to become professional bakers.
 - b) Sarah dreams of being a painter, Mike aspires to be a musician, and Emily wants to be a writer.
 - c) They all plan to work in the family bakery.
 - d) They have not decided on their future aspirations.

3. What does Mr. Anderson propose when he realizes that his children are not interested in taking over the bakery?
 - a) He suggests they close the bakery.
 - b) He wants to hire a manager from outside the family.
 - c) He decides to keep running the bakery himself.
 - d) He plans to open a new bakery in a different town.

4. What role does Mrs. Johnson play in the story?
 - a) She is an outside buyer interested in purchasing the bakery.
 - b) She advises the Andersons on how to improve their baking.
 - c) She offers wisdom and perspective to the family during their struggle.
 - d) She becomes the new manager of the bakery.

5. How do the Andersons ultimately resolve their family business conflict?
 - a) They decide to close the bakery.
 - b) They sell the bakery to an outside buyer.
 - c) They compromise by pursuing their individual dreams while modernizing the bakery.
 - d) They continue to argue and never find a solution.

