

Name _____

Family Business

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think the Anderson family's experience in "Family Business" reflects the importance of compromise and supporting each other's dreams within a family?
2. Why do you think Mr. Anderson was so determined to have one of his children take over the bakery, and how did this desire impact his relationship with his children?
3. What do you believe the central message or lesson of the story "Family Business" is, and how can it apply to real-life situations?
4. In your opinion, how could the Anderson family have communicated and resolved their conflicts more effectively throughout the story?

