

Name _____

Family Business

Short Answer Key

1. The central conflict is the struggle for control of the family bakery. It affects the Anderson family by causing tension and conflicts as they disagree on whether to take over the business or pursue their individual dreams.
2. Sarah dreams of becoming a painter, Mike aspires to be a musician, and Emily wants to be a writer. These aspirations clash with their father's expectations because he wants one of them to take over the bakery, which none of them are interested in.
3. Mr. Anderson proposes selling the bakery to an outside buyer. The family is shocked and devastated by this proposal.
4. Mrs. Johnson offers wisdom and perspective to the family. She advises them to support each other's dreams and find a way to modernize the bakery while preserving its traditional charm.

