

Name _____

Global Family Ties: How Globalization Shapes Family Structures and Social Norms

Short Answer Key

1. (Answers may vary; e.g., a multicultural family consists of members from different cultural backgrounds; globalization can lead to multicultural families through international marriages or cross-cultural adoptions.)
2. (Answers may vary; e.g., globalization has challenged traditional gender roles by encouraging women to pursue careers and men to take on parenting responsibilities, such as paternity leave.)
3. (Answers may vary; e.g., media and technology can influence body image by promoting unrealistic beauty standards, leading to body dissatisfaction and relationship portrayals that may not reflect real-life dynamics.)
4. (Answers may vary; e.g., family separation can lead to emotional stress, missed family events, and the need for long-distance communication; advantages may include increased income and opportunities for family members.)
5. (Answers may vary; e.g., increased cultural exchange and acceptance can lead to a more inclusive society where people from different backgrounds are respected and valued.)

