

Name _____

Family or Duty?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How were families formed in Jonas's community?
  - a) People fell in love and got married
  - b) The Committee of Elders assigned family members
  - c) People applied to become parents and were chosen randomly
  - d) Families were only made up of friends

2. Why were Birthmothers important in Jonas's society?
  - a) They raised children until they were old enough
  - b) They taught children how to follow the rules
  - c) They gave birth to all the babies, who were then assigned to families
  - d) They decided which families would receive a child

3. How did Jonas's idea of family change after receiving memories?
  - a) He realized true families were filled with love and connection
  - b) He thought his assigned family was better than past families
  - c) He believed his parents loved him more than others
  - d) He decided that love was not important

4. Why did Jonas's parents say love was not a real feeling?
  - a) They believed emotions were dangerous
  - b) They did not understand love because it was removed from their society
  - c) They were trying to test Jonas's knowledge
  - d) They were only allowed to express love in private

5. What does Jonas's community value more than love and emotions?
  - a) Creativity and self-expression
  - b) Freedom and independence
  - c) Large families and celebrations
  - d) Safety, control, and sameness

