

Name _____

Family or Duty?

Short Answer Key

1. The Committee of Elders assigned parents and children to form a family unit.
2. After receiving memories, Jonas realized that families in the past had deep emotional bonds, while his family lacked true love.
3. Jonas saw a memory of a family celebrating together, hugging, and showing love to one another.
4. Jonas felt sad because he understood love, but his parents did not, which made him feel alone.
5. The Giver shows that family is more than just people living together—it is about love, connection, and shared experiences.

