

Name _____

Family or Duty?

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary. Some may say no because love is what makes families special, while others may argue that care and support are enough.
2. Answers will vary. Some may feel angry that love was taken away, while others may feel sad for the people who never knew what love was.
3. Answers will vary. Some may say families would be happier and more connected, while others may argue that too much choice could lead to problems.
4. Answers will vary. Some may say the decision was good because it prevented conflict, while others may argue that removing emotions made life empty and meaningless.

