

Name _____

Family First

Short Answer Key

1. Charlie shows kindness by thinking of his family before himself, sharing his chocolate, and bringing Grandpa Joe to the factory.
2. Charlie's choice to bring Grandpa Joe is important because it shows his respect and love for his elders.
3. The other children are selfish and demanding, while Charlie is thoughtful and respectful.
4. When Charlie thinks he has lost, he stays calm and does not complain or throw a tantrum.
5. Charlie's story teaches that kindness, patience, and respect for family are more important than wealth or greed.

