Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers should discuss how Dahl made Charlie's love for his family a key part of why he won the factory.
2. Responses should consider whether Charlie would still be chosen if he had acted selfishly like the other children.
3. Answers should reflect personal choices, explaining who they would take to the factory and why.
4. Responses should explore how growing up in a caring family helped Charlie develop good values and decision-making skills.
