Georgia's Legends: Celebrating Famous Georgians

Short Answer Key

1. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was a prominent civil rights leader who advocated for equality and justice. His famous "I Have a Dream" speech, delivered during the March on Washington, emphasized the dream of a future where all people would be judged by the content of their character, not the color of their skin.
2. Ray Charles was a legendary musician who blended various genres, including jazz, blues, and gospel. His most famous song is "Georgia on My Mind," which has become an iconic anthem associated with the state.
3. Jackie Robinson's entry into Major League Baseball broke the color barrier in the sport. His courage and skill paved the way for future generations of Black athletes, challenging racial segregation in sports and society.
4. Juliette Gordon Low founded the Girl Scouts of the USA, an organization dedicated to empowering girls and young women through character development, leadership training, and community service. Its mission is to build girls of courage, confidence, and character.
5. James Brown, "The Godfather of Soul," is known for his electrifying performances and iconic songs like "I Got You (I Feel Good)." He revolutionized music by creating a unique blend of soul, funk, and rhythm and blues.
