

Name _____

The Life of a Farm Laborer: Sowing Seeds of Hard Work

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary role of a farm laborer?
 - a) Managing the finances of the farm
 - b) Caring for animals on the farm
 - c) Planting, tending to, and harvesting crops
 - d) Painting farmhouses

2. What type of education is typically required to become a farm laborer?
 - a) A degree in computer science
 - b) A degree in agriculture
 - c) No formal education is required
 - d) A degree in literature

3. Why is physical fitness an essential skill for farm laborers?
 - a) To write poems about farming
 - b) To perform magic tricks on the farm
 - c) To handle physically demanding tasks such as lifting and bending
 - d) To design farm equipment

4. What is one of the responsibilities of a farm laborer during the planting season?
 - a) Cleaning the farmhouse
 - b) Operating tractors and plows
 - c) Milking cows
 - d) Playing music for the plants

5. Why is attention to detail important for farm laborers?
 - a) To make sculptures out of crops
 - b) To work quickly and finish tasks faster
 - c) To ensure tasks like planting and harvesting are done accurately and efficiently
 - d) To write novels about farming

