

Name _____

Farm Magic

Short Answer Key

1. Wilbur feels lonely because he misses Fern and does not know the other animals yet.
2. The farm brings the animals to life by giving them unique voices and personalities, like the wise sheep and the talkative goose.
3. The changing seasons symbolize the passage of time and the natural cycle of life and death.
4. The farm shows that animals grow, change, and sometimes face hardships, just like in real life.
5. The farm is important because it helps Wilbur find friendship, face challenges, and learn important lessons.

