Farm Politics

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The animals didn't question the pigs earlier because they were scared, confused, and trusted the pigs to do what was best for everyone.
2. Propaganda in real life, like in Animal Farm, is used to control people by spreading false or misleading information to make leaders seem better.
3. Revolutions don't always lead to fairness because leaders can become corrupt or selfish, like the pigs in Animal Farm.
4. People can learn to think critically, question their leaders, and work together to ensure fairness and honesty in their communities.
