

Name _____

Viking Style: Unveiling the Fashion of the Viking Age

Short Answer Key

1. Common Viking headgear for men during colder weather consisted of simple woolen caps.
2. Viking jewelry was commonly made of materials such as silver, gold, and bone.
3. Vikings created their tattoos using a technique called "stick and poke," and they represented achievements and adventures.
4. Vikings wore furs and animal skins in the winter to stay warm and protected from the cold.
5. The colors used in Viking clothing included natural tones as well as bold and vibrant hues, making their clothing visually striking and culturally significant.

