

Name _____

The Enchanted Wardrobe: A Time-Traveling Fashion Journey

Short Answer Key

1. In the Roaring Twenties, the kids experienced a fashion era of flapper dresses, bowler hats, and jazz music. They learned to swing dance and embraced the spirit of the Great Gatsby by attending lively parties and dances.
2. In the 1960s, the kids attended a peace rally and spread messages of love and unity through signs and slogans. The prevalent fashion trends included psychedelic patterns, bell-bottom pants, and tie-dye shirts.
3. In the 1980s, the kids learned the importance of individuality through the vibrant fashion trends of neon colors, leg warmers, and unique personal styles. They expressed their individuality by participating in activities like breakdancing and roller skating.
4. The kids traveled to the Renaissance era to learn the minuet dance. The fashion of that time included long, elegant dresses and top hats, and they marveled at the grand architecture and etiquette of the period.
5. The enchanted wardrobe taught the kids that fashion is not just about clothing but a reflection of the times and the people who lived in them. They learned to appreciate the cultural significance of fashion and how it evolves over time.

