

Name _____

The Enchanted Wardrobe: A Time-Traveling Fashion Journey

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary. Students should choose a fashion era and describe the fashion elements that excite them, such as clothing styles, accessories, or cultural aspects.
2. Answers will vary. Students should choose an era and explain why they find it challenging to adapt to its fashion and culture, considering differences from their own time.
3. Answers will vary. Students should provide examples of historical events where fashion reflected the culture of a particular time, such as the 1960s counterculture movement or the Victorian era's emphasis on modesty and formality.
4. Answers will vary. Students should describe the adventures they would want to go on with the magical wardrobe and speculate on the potential lessons they might learn, such as the value of empathy, historical understanding, or creativity.

