The Dilemma of the Fast Lane

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Liam felt shocked and conflicted when he discovered the performance-enhancing drugs. Initially, he was curious but soon realized the ethical dilemma he was facing, which made him feel uneasy and troubled.
2. Liam decided to confront Coach Thompson because he believed in doing the right thing. He knew that using performance-enhancing drugs was cheating and against his principles of fairness and integrity. He chose to have a difficult conversation to maintain his honesty and self-respect.
3. Liam's decision was guided by values such as honesty, fairness, and integrity. He believed in fair competition and didn't want to compromise his principles for the sake of winning. He wanted to win through hard work and talent, not by cheating.
4. In the long run, Liam's decision likely had positive consequences for his character. He demonstrated strong moral values and integrity, which can serve as a foundation for his personal growth. However, in the short term, it might have affected his athletic career, as he didn't win the championship. Nonetheless, his decision to compete fairly and honestly can lead to respect from others and personal growth that extends beyond sports.
