

Name _____

Fear Spreads

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. I would try to stay calm and ask for proof before believing the accusations.
2. The town's leaders trusted the girls, and people were scared, so they believed without evidence.
3. One example is when people quickly believe false news on the internet without checking facts.
4. Telling the truth is important because it helps stop unfairness and protects innocent people.