

Name _____

Federalism: A Unique System of Government

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is federalism?
  - a) A type of pizza
  - b) A system of government where power is divided between a central government and individual state governments
  - c) A type of ice cream
  - d) A type of car

2. What is one advantage of federalism?
  - a) It leads to a single, unified set of laws for the entire country.
  - b) It allows for experimentation and flexibility in addressing different state needs.
  - c) It ensures that all states have the same level of resources.
  - d) It concentrates all power at the state level.

3. Why can federalism sometimes lead to conflicts?
  - a) Because everyone always agrees on everything.
  - b) Because it encourages states to work together seamlessly.
  - c) Because different levels of government may have differing opinions and interests.
  - d) Because federalism is a very simple and straightforward system.

4. Which disadvantage of federalism is related to the issue of having multiple layers of government?
  - a) Complexity
  - b) Inequality
  - c) Lack of Uniformity
  - d) Conflict

5. What does the term "laboratories of democracy" mean in the context of federalism?
  - a) It refers to scientific experiments conducted in state governments.
  - b) It means that states can try out new policies and solutions.
  - c) It describes the way federalism works in a chemistry lab.
  - d) It suggests that democracy only works at the federal level.

