

Name _____

Federalism: A Unique System of Government

Multiple Choice Answer Key

1. b) A system of government where power is divided between a central government and individual state governments
2. b) It allows for experimentation and flexibility in addressing different state needs.
3. c) Because different levels of government may have differing opinions and interests.
4. a) Complexity
5. b) It means that states can try out new policies and solutions.

