

Name _____

Amphibian Appetites: Exploring the Diet and Feeding Behavior of Frogs, Toads, and Salamanders

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary diet of most amphibians?
 - a) Other animals
 - b) Plants
 - c) Rocks
 - d) Water

2. How do frogs and toads catch their prey?
 - a) By climbing trees
 - b) By extending their sticky tongues
 - c) By camouflage
 - d) By swimming rapidly

3. What is an example of prey for amphibians?
 - a) Grass
 - b) Sunshine
 - c) Rocks
 - d) Small fish

4. How do many salamanders catch their prey?
 - a) By lying in wait and lunging forward
 - b) By flying
 - c) By digging burrows
 - d) By singing

5. What is the feeding behavior of many caecilians?
 - a) Climbing trees
 - b) Swimming in ponds
 - c) Burrowing and feeding on invertebrates
 - d) Hopping on land

