

Name _____

Understanding Other People's Feelings and Perspectives

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine a world where everyone practiced empathy. How would this world be different from our current one?
2. Think of a situation where understanding someone's feelings and perspectives could prevent a major conflict. Describe how empathy would play a role in resolving it.
3. Share a story or example from a book, movie, or real life where empathy had a significant impact on the outcome of a situation.
4. What steps can you take to further develop your empathy skills and become more understanding of others' feelings and perspectives?

