

Name _____

Fern's Kindness

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Fern want to save Wilbur?
  - a) She wanted a pet pig.
  - b) She was told by Charlotte to protect him.
  - c) She wanted to prove she could take care of a pig.
  - d) She believed it was unfair to harm a small, helpless animal.

2. How did Fern treat Wilbur differently from the adults on the farm?
  - a) She saw him as a friend and not just a farm animal.
  - b) She let him run free instead of keeping him in a pen.
  - c) She wanted to sell him for money.
  - d) She ignored him after he grew bigger.

3. What does Fern's love for Wilbur show about her?
  - a) She is selfish and only cares about herself.
  - b) She sees the world with kindness and empathy.
  - c) She does not understand how farms work.
  - d) She likes all animals equally.

4. How did Fern's relationship with Wilbur change over time?
  - a) She stopped caring about him completely.
  - b) She spent more time with him as she grew older.
  - c) She still cared about him but spent less time at the barn.
  - d) She convinced her father to bring Wilbur back home.

5. What theme does Fern's story teach in Charlotte's Web?
  - a) Animals are just farm creatures and have no feelings.
  - b) Kindness and empathy toward all living things matter.
  - c) Pigs should never be raised on farms.
  - d) Children should not have pets.

