Name _____

Fighting for Freedom

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think Black soldiers felt when they fought for freedom but were treated unfairly at home?

2. Why was it important for civil rights leaders to fight for equal jobs during World War II?

3. Can you think of another time in history when people worked together to create change?

4. How do you think World War II changed the way people thought about fairness and justice?

© ReadingDuck.com