

Name _____

Behind the Camera: A Day in the Life of a Film Director

Short Answer Key

1. The primary responsibility of a film director is to bring the script to life on screen.
2. Practical experience, such as internships or independent films, is important for aspiring film directors because it provides valuable hands-on experience in the film industry.
3. During the production phase of a film, a film director guides the actors and makes real-time decisions on set.
4. A challenging aspect of a film director's career can be long hours and managing a creative team.
5. Film directors need to possess skills such as creativity, communication, problem-solving, and attention to detail.

