

Name _____

Journey of Self-Discovery: A Sonnet on Finding Me

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the Sonnet poem "Journey of Self-Discovery: A Sonnet on Finding Me"?

- a) The importance of mirrors
- b) The process of self-discovery and coming to terms with one's identity
- c) The search for buried treasure
- d) The need to change one's identity

2. How does the poem describe the journey of self-discovery?

- a) As a straight and easy path
- b) As a challenging and twisting journey
- c) As a race to be won
- d) As an impossible task

3. What does the poem suggest about understanding oneself?

- a) It's not worth the effort
- b) It's important to accept one's flaws
- c) It's easy and requires no effort
- d) It's a quick process

4. How does the poem characterize the process of self-discovery?

- a) As a one-time event
- b) As a journey of growth and learning
- c) As a journey with no end
- d) As a destination to reach

5. What is the message conveyed by the poem about embracing one's identity?

- a) Embracing one's identity is unnecessary
- b) Embracing one's identity leads to more flaws
- c) Embracing one's identity is an important part of self-discovery
- d) Embracing one's identity is a sign of weakness

