

Name _____

The Garden of Fireflies

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. The Garden of Fireflies was described as having a soft, ethereal glow with thousands of fireflies twinkling like stars. The air was cooler, and the night was filled with the sound of chirping crickets. It was a place of enchantment hidden deep within the forest.
2. Lily's experiences in the Garden of Fireflies filled her with a sense of wonder and appreciation for the beauty of nature. It also became a cherished tradition for the people of Glowville, bringing them together to witness the magic of the fireflies.
3. The message of the story is that nature holds its own kind of magic and beauty, and sometimes, the most enchanting experiences can be found in the simplest and most unexpected places. This message can apply to our lives by encouraging us to appreciate and protect the natural world around us.
4. Answers may vary, but students can describe what they would do and how they would feel if they had the chance to visit a magical place like the Garden of Fireflies, emphasizing their sense of wonder and connection with nature.

