

Name _____

Firefly Life: Nighttime Glows and Daytime Rests

Short Answer Key

1. Fireflies glow at night to communicate and find mates.
2. Their dark-colored bodies help them blend into their surroundings.
3. Fireflies are most commonly found in grassy, wooded, or wet areas at night.
4. Fireflies glow to warn predators that they taste bad or might be toxic.
5. No, fireflies do not live in families, but they gather in clusters at night.

