

Name _____

Firefly Talk: Glowing Conversations in the Night

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do fireflies primarily communicate?
 - A. By making sounds
 - B. By flashing their lights
 - C. By using scents
 - D. By waving their legs

2. What is bioluminescence?
 - A. A process where fireflies glow using chemicals in their body
 - B. A type of scent used for communication
 - C. A sound fireflies make to warn predators
 - D. The pattern of their wings

3. Why do male fireflies flash their lights?
 - A. To find food
 - B. To scare predators
 - C. To attract mates
 - D. To trick prey

4. How do some female fireflies trick other fireflies?
 - A. By hiding in the grass
 - B. By mimicking the flashing patterns of other species
 - C. By making chirping sounds
 - D. By glowing constantly

5. What is one way fireflies use their glow for protection?
 - A. They create a chemical smell
 - B. They flash to attract larger animals for safety
 - C. They use light to hide in dark places
 - D. They glow to scare away predators

