

Name _____

The First Crush Waltz

Short Answer Key

1. The narrator felt excited and thrilled when they watched their crushes walk by.
2. The young hearts exchanged their secret notes in the library corner because it was a quiet and private place.
3. The atmosphere at the school dance was described as delightful, with twinkling stars and a romantic mood.
4. The young hearts hoped that their crushes would notice their smiles and shy stares when they confessed their feelings in the notes.
5. The poem suggests that innocence and love are intertwined and beautiful aspects of life.

