

Name _____

First Day of College

Open Ended Questions

1. Explore the character of Max and his knack for turning everyday situations into comedic chaos. How does his behavior reflect the theme of humor and unpredictability in the story?
2. Discuss the role of laughter and unexpected moments in Max's first day of college and how they contribute to the story's overall humor. What message might the story convey about the importance of embracing the unexpected?
3. Reflect on Max's realization at the end of his first day. How does he come to appreciate the value of unexpected moments and laughter in making life memorable? What lessons can readers draw from his experience?
4. Consider the broader implications of Max's comically chaotic first day in the context of college life and personal growth. How might such experiences shape a person's college journey and perspective on life?

