

Name _____

First Love's Haiku

Short Answer Key

1. The Haiku conveys emotions of excitement, passion, and the awakening of romantic feelings.
2. The Haiku captures the essence of first love by describing the physical and emotional reactions that occur, such as quickening heartbeats and ignited smiles.
3. "Smiles ignite" means that smiles suddenly appear or become more intense, as if sparked by the excitement of first love.
4. Answers will vary. Students can share personal experiences or thoughts related to the feelings described in the Haiku.
5. First love is often considered memorable and special because it represents a new and intense emotional experience, a sense of discovery, and the beginning of romantic relationships.

